Purposes of the processing for which the personal data are intended and legal basis of the processing.

The data processing is carried out by the owner as a public authority in the execution of the institutional tasks pursuant to LR n. 27 of 2018.

The requested data are essential for the purposes of admission to the tender and the fulfillment of the obligations established by law and regulations regarding tenders and will be processed, in compliance with current legislation, solely for the purposes of the procedure for identifying the best bidder and pre-contractual activities, the subsequent signing of the contract and its execution.

Participation in tender procedures involves the processing of personal data relating to criminal convictions and crimes or related security measures for the purpose of verifying that there are no reasons for exclusion of economic operators.

Categories of recipients of personal data

The data communicated are made accessible to authorized employees and collaborators and processed both in paper and electronic and / or digital form in order to guarantee their security, integrity, and confidentiality.

The personal data relating to the processing in question may be communicated in the cases provided for by law or regulations to the other companies participating in the award procedure and to the other Bodies participating in the procedure.

The data may be made accessible to subjects contractually linked to the Data Controller (by way of example: service providers, hardware and software assistance staff, credit institutions, professional firms, etc.) who carry out outsourced activities on behalf of the Data Controller, also possibly in their capacity as data controllers.

The data can be made accessible or communicated to Supervisory Bodies, Judicial Authorities as well as to all other subjects to whom the communication is mandatory by law or for the accomplishment of the purposes for which the data are collected.

Personal data relating to the tender procedure are subject to the transparency requirements governed by Legislative Decree no. 33/2013 and subsequent amendments.

Personal data retention period

The conservation criteria indicated in the "Handbook of waste" adopted by the General Directorate for Archives of the Ministry for Cultural Heritage and Activities are followed as far as applicable, as well as the specific rules on conservation and supervision of the archives of public bodies established by the Legislative Decree 22 January 2004, n. 42, Code of cultural heritage and landscape, as well as the procedure for archiving documents approved by decree no. 439/2010 of the former AOU "S. Maria della Misericordia" of Udine.

The management and storage of personal data takes place on servers located in Italy of the owner and / or third parties appointed and duly appointed as data processors.

Rights of the data subject

The interested party has the right to obtain from the data controller confirmation as to whether or not personal data is being processed and to obtain access to personal data and information concerning him.

The interested party can also exercise the following rights at any time:

- ask the data controller to correct inaccurate data or limit the processing of personal data concerning him in the cases provided for;
- request the deletion of personal data that have been unlawfully processed. The right to erasure is not recognized in the following cases: for the fulfillment of a legal obligation requiring processing required by Union or Member State law to which the data controller is subject, or for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest, or in exercising the official authority vested in the data controller;
- oppose the processing unless there are legitimate prevailing or binding reasons to proceed with the processing;
- lodge a complaint with the Guarantor for the protection of personal data (for more information visit the website www.garanteprivacy.it).

The communication of personal data is a necessary requirement for participation in the award procedure and the possible conclusion of the contract.

The interested party has the right to provide the personal data requested but in case of failure to communicate one or more data, the interested party may be excluded from the tender procedure.
