

112

Emergency number

- 112 is the phone number of reference for all emergencies.
- The number 112 connects the citizen with an Operation Headquarter which receives calls, evaluates the seriousness of the situation and, if necessary, sends staff and emergency vehicles on the basis of specific situations of need.
- 112 is a free number and is active 24 hours a day.
- The number 112 can be called from any telephone (landline or mobile phone). Mobile phones can make calls to the emergency services even when they have no credit. In case of calls from phone boxes, coins or phone cards are not necessary.
- It is necessary for the caller to describe the situation in detail and to provide the address where help is needed.
